PART 1

1.

Boy: You look sad.

Girl: Yeah, I haven't seen my cat for a few days. I'm worried.

Boy: It's too bad he has run away. Maybe you can get a new pet? Like a dog?

Girl: It's too early to think about that. I'm going to wait and see.

2.

Mom: I need to talk with Michael's teacher at school this week. Can you come along with me?

Dad: OK, when is good?

Mom: I want to go after work this Wednesday. Or on Friday in the morning is OK, too.

Dad: Sorry, I'm busy in the evenings this week. But... I think I can make time if we go before noon.

3.

Girl: We've been playing this game for hours. I can't play anymore.

Boy: Well, if you're bored of it, we could try another one. How about this adventure game? It's really interesting.

Girl: It's not that. My eyes hurt. And I'm getting tired.

Boy: Let's take a break then. We can go stretch our legs and get something to eat.

1.

A: Have you heard about the festival next week?

B: Yeah, I think it's going to be great. I go every year.

A: I want to go, too. Do you want to go ①(together) ?

B: Sure! We can enjoy the fireworks when it gets dark.

A: Let's go a little early and find a good spot to sit before it gets ②(crowded).

2.

A: Hey, Yuka. This is for you.

B: Oh, what is it?

A: I went to Los Angeles this summer to see a Dodgers' game. And this is a souvenir for you.

B: Oh, this is so cool! Thank you. Ohtani is my ③(favorite) player.

A: Yeah, he is amazing. He hit his 40th home run in the game!

B: I'm so jealous. ④(I have never been to America). I want to go see him play someday!

3.

A: I'll be busy at work and probably come home late tonight, so can you make curry for dinner?

B: OK, but you know that ⑤(I'm not good at cooking), Mom.

A: I know, I know. It doesn't have to be anything great. Just look for an easy curry recipe on your phone. You can do it.

B: All right. ⑥(I will do my best).
